

Camino walk popular with solo travellers

IF YOU think that travelling alone is stressful, daunting and lonely, then think again.

Camino Ways, the walking and cycling holiday specialists, say they cater for lots of solo travellers who enjoy their fun and exciting tours as much, if not more so, than couples and groups.

Walking tours on offer from Camino Ways cover the Camino de Santiago and are compiled of groups of six to 15 members. Knowledgeable guides accompany the group for the entire trip, making the experience completely hassle free.

Guides check guests into their accommodation, help with formalities, transfer luggage and handle all other administrative aspects of the tour.

The Camino de Santiago tour covers the last 100 kilometres of the French Way of the Camino de Santiago from Sarria to Santiago de Compostela.

This section is the most famous, and most walked, part of the Camino and offers unrivalled views of the landscape of Galicia.

The trek is split into six walking days and seven nights in accommodation that has been specially selected by Camino Ways.

During the trip guests stay in Pousada de Portomarin, in Portomarin - a cosy hotel perched on a hill, 50 metres above the river Mino. They also experience Hotel La Cabaña in Palas de Rey, featuring pretty bungalows in tranquil gardens.

Hotel Teodora, in Arzua, a welcoming hotel in the centre of town, which is popular with locals, is also part of the tour.

To make the tour really unique and unforgettable, the final night is spent in Hotel Hesperia San Martin Pinario, in Santiago. Right beside the cathedral, this hotel is set in a monastery that has hosted pilgrim since the late XVI century.

Camino Ways are offering its solo traveller experience from €690 per person. The price includes fabulous three course dinners every evening and breakfast every morning as well as luggage transfers, en-suite rooms in selected hotels on a half-board basis, luggage transfers from hotel to hotel and a holiday pack.

Price does not include flights, insurance or drinks. To book, or for further information, visit www.caminoways.com or call 01-5252886.
