

CAMINO WAY DAY

The Camino De Santiago De Compostela – or the Way of St James – in Northern Spain was one of the most important Christian pilgrimages in medieval times; even today it sees thousands of visitors (many Irish) don their walking shoes annually and follow in the footsteps, for weeks or even months, of those devout pioneers. This Thursday is St James' Day and to celebrate, CaminoWays are inviting seasoned Camino travellers as well as would-be pilgrims to their city-centre offices from 4pm until 8pm to find out more about the Camino and packages available.

Galician singer Susana Garrido will play from 6pm and there'll be food and wine from Northern Spain to sample. Thu, CaminoWays, 16 Redmond's Hill D2. Tel: (01) 525 2886. www.CaminoWays.com

