

Today FM Phil Cawley officially opens CaminoWays.com new offices

6th August 2016 - 2:35pm

At the opening

Today FM DJ and Camino fan Phil Cawley officially opened the new CaminoWays.com offices in Dublin city. Camino fans from all over Ireland, including walking clubs and parish groups, as well as business partners and media joined the CaminoWays.com team on their big opening that doubled up as St James Day celebrations, the most special date in the Camino calendar. Humans of the Camino, a Camino-inspired portrait exhibition by Belfast photographer Joe Laverty was also launched on the night and it will remain open until 21st August. From humble beginnings in director Roland Monsegu's kitchen in 2010, the company now employs a talented and multicultural team of 25 people in Dublin. Radio presenter Phil Cawley, a big Camino de Santiago fan, will be heading on his third Camino trip this September with a group of 40 Today FM listeners.
