

Sunday Independent

TRAVEL NEWS

Walk or cycle the Camino with CaminoWays.com

The Camino de Santiago is probably the most famous walking route in the world. Originally a pilgrimage to the city of Santiago de Compostela in Galicia, the Camino today is more than that: it's a unique cultural experience and a memorable trip. Thousands of pilgrims of all ages and nationalities head to Santiago each year. While most of us will be familiar with the famous Camino Frances, there are many Camino routes criss-crossing Europe and all taking you to Santiago. Dublin-based Camino specialists CaminoWays.com organise walking and cycling tours, both for individuals and groups.

