CAMINO experts CaminoWays.com are offering families the chance to cycle along the famous path. The last part of the French Way is by far the most popular and offers good pathways for cycling. You can cycle the last 100km over the duration of one week, for 20km per day, which means that the children can enjoy it without feeling tired.

The wonderful cycle starts in Sarria and ends at the outstanding Cathedral of Santiago. Throughout the trip you will spend your nights in comfortable accommodation hand-picked for a family-friendly atmosphere. Bikes, breakfast and dinners are included in the price. There is 40 per cent off for children aged between three and nine, and 20 per cent off for children aged between ten and 17 years. Children under two go free.

Camino Ways are now offering this fun-filled, action-packed holiday from just €613 per adult. Tel: (01) 525 2886. www.caminoways.com.
