

NEWS AND OFFERS

CAMINO WAYS: Fancy walking the Camino pilgrimage route without taking too much out of you?

Now you can walk this October bank holiday. Cover 35km in two days and finishes in the historic city of Santiago de Compostela.

The break, including three nights lodgings and some meals, is available from €295pps. See caminoways.ie to book or for info.

CLICK AND GO: Has a range of late deals to the Canaries - including Fuerteventura. Depart November 6, 13, 17, 20 or 27 from Dublin with Aer Lingus and stay a week in the three-star Suite Hotel Castillo de Elba in Caleta de Fuste from €339pp based on two sharing. One checked-in bag and taxes and charges included in price. See clickandgo.com

CONCORDE TRAVEL: The weather's a bit cooler, but the prices are a lot hotter to Croatia in the coming weeks.

Enjoy a week in the three-star Antuninska Apartments (Dubrovnik Old Town) from €399 with Aer Lingus flights; €574pp gets you a week in the three Hotel Komodor in Dubrovnik, pictured, (B&B), both departing October 17. Leave Dublin a week later and you'll get the Antuninska Apartments for €299.

Other deals available to the country and to nearby Montenegro for October.

Visit concordetravel.ie, or phone (01) 775 9300 for more details.

IRISH FERRIES: It's not even Halloween - but you can get in early and book your French holiday now. Irish Ferries is giving you a head start and is offering prices starting from €129 one way for two adults and car.

There's a bonus of a €100 booking deposit (balance payable six weeks before departure) plus a free return trip to Britain for a car plus two passengers for all motorists who book a return package to France for June, July and August holidays.

Visit irishferries.com or call 0818 300 400.

TURKISH AIRLINES: Having been there many times, I can see why Istanbul has been voted the Destination of the Year 2012 at the Food and Travel Reader Awards.

The Turkish metropolis is now one of Europe's top city-break destinations with more than eight million visitors annually, taking its spot among the world's 10 most-visited cities.

Experience it for yourself with a cut-price fare from award-winning Turkish Airlines,

Voted Europe's Best Airline 2012, it's got return flights, including taxes and charges, ex Dublin from €179pp. Terms and conditions apply, and offer is valid until November 30. See turkishairlines.com

Over 55 years of age? Enjoy a balcony room on Royal Caribbean's Serenade of the Seas for just €369 on a mid-Med cruise. Ports of call include Barcelona, Toulon in France and Palma De Mallorca, Spain. Includes return Aer Lingus flights to Barcelona. See e-travel.ie for terms and conditions.

