

DEAL OF THE WEEK

WHEELY GOOD FAMILY FUN

Now both younger and older generations can enjoy the sights along the stunning Camino de Santiago pilgrimage path with specialist company Camino Ways offering families the chance to cycle along this famous path.

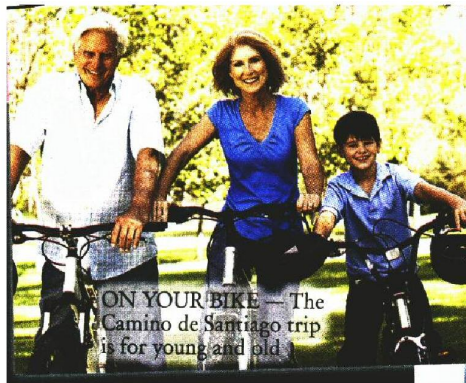

The last part of the way offers good pathways for cycling. Camino Ways have broken it down into 20km per day which means children can enjoy it without feeling too tired.

This fun-filled, action-packed holiday is on offer from €613 per adult with 40 per cent off for children aged three to nine and 20 per cent off for children aged between 10 and 17. Children under two are free.

Throughout the trip you will spend your nights in comfortable accommodations which have been hand-picked for their family-friendly atmosphere. Accommodation, bike hire, breakfast and dinners are included in the price but flights are not.
