Publication: Sunday Business Post Magazine

Date: Sunday, March 23, 2014

Page: 37 Extract: 1 of 1 Circulation: 41040

Author:

Headline: Caminoways guided tours

Caminoways guided tours

Travel briefs

 Caminoways.com begins its guided tours this month and has a number of walks to choose from including:

Last 100km of the French Way: this, the most popular route, begins in the town of Sarria and is perfect for those looking to capture the essence of the Camino. The trip is priced at €749pps.

The Finisterre Way: At a cost of €789pps this is the only route that begins in Santiago. The path passes through villages and unspoiled landscapes before reaching the cliffs of Cape Finisterre.

Last 100km of the Camino to Rome: Follow this path through towns, villages and scenic countryside before finishing in Rome. €850pps.

All trips include an eight-day tour, accommodation on a half board basis, airport transfers and luggage transfers between hotels. Travel insurance and flights are not included.

Caminoways.com has a number of walks to choose from