

IRISH DAILY STAR

YOUR PERFECT GETAWAY

EXCITING HOLIDAY GUIDE FOR A WHOLE NEW WORLD OF CHOICE

WITH CATHERINE HALLORAN

- ★ THE Tropical Medical Bureau has opened a new clinic in Kilkenny. It is located at the Ayrfield Medical Centre on Granges Road in the city.
- ★ NEXT month sees a new festival coming to Dublin — the inaugural Shelbourne Oyster Festival.
The festival at the Shelbourne Hotel runs throughout the entire month of September.
- ★ TROPICAL Sky is offering a €340 saving per person on a seven-night stay at the four-star Cinnamon Bey Beruwala hotel in Sri Lanka.
Departing between December 1 and 20, if booked by September 30, the holiday — which includes flights and accommodation on an all-inclusive basis — will cost just €1,299 per person.
- ★ ANYONE in the Cork area interested in tackling the Camino?
If so, CaminoWays.com will be holding a free talk on Wednesday, September 2 at 7pm at the 53 Degrees North store in Cork city.
It will focus on their top picks out of the Camino routes from the famous French Way to the Portuguese Coastal Route.
- ★ TOPFLIGHT has a selection of all-inclusive offers for different resorts in Cancun, Mexico.
For example, from €1,799 you can get seven nights all-inclusive at the plush five-star Moon Palace Golf and Spa Resort until October 15, 2015.
Price includes return flights, baggage and resort transfers.